1. On 18 January 1954, the Jaeger Kaserne in Luebben was still occupied by about 800 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia. Four T-34/85 tanks, 2 T-34 tank chassis, 5 BA-64 armored scout cars, and 4 radio trucks or repair shop trucks were still parked in the barracks yard. At about 8:30 a.m., about 300 troops fell in for morning roll call in the barracks yard. Afterwards, about 40 FM marched to the cantonment northwest of the Luebben railroad station. No training activity was observed.
